Sam Melvin, an underachieving e-reporter from a small town, changes forever when he meets turkeys that won't stay dead. You can shoot 'em, chop 'em, burn 'em—they come back stronger. The undead plague of poultry spreads irresistibly, rocking the whole country. As Sam tracks down the zombie turkeys and how to eradicate them, his editor Lisa Kambacher, nags him to turn his stories and expenses in on time. During their years of working together, Lisa has mellowed from bitchy into an irascible pinch penny. Lisa snipes at Sam for plebian writing but uses her intelligence to pursue the lucrative carnivorous turkey story. Sam and Lisa ricochet across the landscape tracking turkeys and fleeing the bloodthirsty hoards. Careening from shell-shocked grocery store owners fighting turkeys crawling out of refrigerators, machine gunning turkey farmers, and secret militia, Sam and Lisa doggedly report. Throughout the turkey apocalypse, they dare ravaged cities, plow knee deep in gore and corpses, and upload streams of zombie turkey video news to the world. With paranoid militias clashing with the Federal government and unkillable turkeys, Sam and Lisa doubt their ability to survive. Unlike the Monster Hunter series by Larry Correia, Sam and Lisa have no superpowers. If you have a heart condition or lack humor, you should NOT read Zombie Turkeys, no matter how much you want to find out what happens. You will miss President Obama, Oprah and the Chicago Bears battling waves of feathered ferocity. By Andy Zach, the foremost paranormal animal author.

STONE How I went from the fall harvest to secretly writing online dating and sex advice for the males of Mudville, I can't figure. All I know is I blame Harper for it. Apparently dating a writer has done something to my brain. But that's not the worst of it. Oh no. My bigger problem is that my youngest brother is sprinting to the altar, intent on a Christmas wedding with a woman he's known for barely a year. Boone beating us to "I do" is not going to sit well with my girlfriend. It should go over about as well as the news that I'm the author behind the column she loathes. What will happen when I finally confess that I'm secretly Mr. Naughty, the man she's declared her arch-enemy? Hell if I know, but I don't need any advice column to tell me that my holiday this year is not going to be merry. If you love the small-town romance and family series like Bella Andre's Sullivan family, or Pippa Grant and Lili Valente's Happy Cat series, you'll love Cat Johnson's stories set in Mudville and all the small-town crazy inside. Don't miss these standalone stories in the series: Kissing Books, Red Hot, Honey Buns, Zero Forks, Undercover Santa, Mister Naughty, Dog Days and Bad Decisions

Fans of Robyn Carr's Virgin River series will love this small-town, feel-good romance! Barbara Terry is enjoying working with her sisters at The Lakeside Inn more than she thought she would. But with almost no winter reservations, they need to do something to increase their revenue to meet their loan payments. Putting her marketing and social media skills to good use, she creates a plan that will give them the business they need—as long as she can continue to juggle running the inn with her job in San Diego and planning her sister's wedding. Theo is an award-winning journalist whose reputation has been destroyed. Starting a community radio station is giving him something positive to focus on while he comes to terms with what happened in New York City. But when the future of the radio station is in jeopardy, he turns to Barbara for help. When the mystery surrounding his arrival in Sapphire Bay is revealed, he has to make the most important decision of his life. Will he stay in Sapphire Bay or risk losing Barbara's love forever? A LAKESIDE THANKSGIVING is the third book in a new series that follows the Terry sisters as they return to a community with big hearts and warm smiles. Romance, adventure, and intrigue are waiting for you in Sapphire Bay! Praise for Leeanna Morgan's books: "I am addicted to Leeanna Morgan's books! Sweet Holiday Romance Sampler Harlequin

In the autumn of 1941, rumors of war whisper through Rosey Corner. The town practically vibrates in anticipation, as if it is holding its breath. But for Kate Merritt, it seems life is letting out a prolonged sigh. As Kate watches her sister marry the man Kate has loved since she was fifteen, her heart is silently breaking. And even the attentions of Jay Tanner, the handsome best man, can't draw her interest. Then suddenly, Pearl Harbor changes everything. Kate's friends are rushing to get married before the boys go off to war. The newspapers talk of women making airplanes and bombs.

Everyone in town begins rolling bandages, planting victory gardens, collecting scrap metal. Kate finds herself drawn to Jay in surprising ways, and when he enlists she can hardly breathe worrying about him getting killed. Could she truly be in love with him? And if she is, will she ever see him again? In her gentle and textured style, Ann Gabhart tells a timeless story of love, sacrifice, and longing that will grip the heart and stir the spirit. Fans of Angel Sister will be thrilled to see Kate Merritt all grown up. New readers will find that Ann Gabhart weaves in Small Town Girl a beautiful story that will touch their hearts and win their loyalty.

Her Mistletoe Cowboy Harlequin

Fans of Robyn Carr's Virgin River series will love these three small-town, feel-good romances! The Lakeside Inn: Penny Terry loves her job as a property development manager in one of Seattle's biggest construction companies. When tragedy strikes, she returns to Sapphire Bay to say goodbye to her grandmother and comfort her parents. The last thing Penny or her sisters expect is to inherit the house her grandma called home. But there's a catch—and it could change their lives forever. Summer at Lakeside: Diana Terry's life has been turned upside down by a bitter divorce. When her beautiful, eccentric grandmother dies, she's devastated. Taking nothing but a battered suitcase and her canine buddy, Charlie, she leaves her old life behind to comfort her family and find a new kind of normal. Meeting Ethan changes her life. His kindness and quiet strength makes her see a brighter future for both of them. When a family heirloom disappears from The Lakeside Inn, a series of events is set in motion that tests their growing relationship. Can they trust each other or will their past experiences overshadow what's in their hearts? A Lakeside Thanksgiving: Barbara Terry is enjoying working with her sisters at The Lakeside Inn. Putting her marketing skills to good use, she creates a plan that will bring more guests to their Bed and Breakfast. Christmas Cowboy Duet Harlequin

"One Shot at Forever is powerful, inspirational. . . . This isn't merely a book about baseball. It's a book about heart." --Jeff Pearlman, New York Times bestselling author of Boys Will Be Boys and The Bad Guys Won In 1971, a small-town high school baseball team from rural Illinois, playing with hand-me-down uniforms and peace signs on their hats, defied convention and the odds. Led by an English teacher with no coaching experience, the Macon Ironmen emerged from a field of 370 teams to represent the smallest school in Illinois history to make the state final, a distinction that still stands. There the Ironmen would play against a Chicago powerhouse in a dramatic game that would change their lives forever. In this gripping, cinematic narrative, Chris Ballard tells the story of the team and its coach, Lynn Sweet: a hippie, dreamer, and intellectual who arrived in Macon in 1966, bringing progressive ideas to a town stuck in the Eisenhower era. Beloved by students but not administration, Sweet reluctantly took over the ragtag team, intent on teaching the boys as much about life as baseball. Together they embarked on an improbable postseason run that buoyed a small town in desperate need of something to celebrate. Engaging and poignant, One Shot at Forever is a testament to the power of high school sports to shape the lives of those who play them, and it reminds us that there are few bonds more sacred than that among a coach, a team, and a town. "Macon's run at the title reminds us why sports matter and why sportswriting has such great power to inspire. . . . [It's] one hell of a good story, and Ballard has written one hell of a good book." --Jonathan Eig, Chicago Tribune

Four sexy, badass athletes who'll never be tamed...and the women who win their hearts. Book 1: KEEP ON LOVING YOU ✓ Second chance romance ✓ Sexy athlete hero ✓ Hot, passionate--all the feels! Six years ago Fin Bowie made a decision that cost him the love of his life. Now his ex is coming back to town for her brother's wedding, and he can finally make things right. Except, right before the event, a text he sent goes viral. Overnight, he becomes an international meme. And it's hard to win your woman back when the whole world's calling you The World's Worst Boyfriend. The last thing on Calliope Bell's mind is getting back with Fin. Not when her life's just gone sideways, forcing her to spend the summer in Calamity, Wyoming. She can't be away from the New York art world this long, so she comes up with the idea to turn the hottest pop culture event of the moment into a museum exhibition. The two have every intention of avoiding each other--until the county judge sentences Fin to community service...helping her exploit the meme he's trying to make go away. Book 2: WE BELONG TOGETHER There's not an athlete alive who can match Will's drive and self-discipline...until an adorable two year old and a fiery chef land on his doorstep and turn his life upside down. If he wants to keep his girls, he's going to have to learn to lead with his heart and not his mind. Will Bowie is supposed to be training for the Olympics, but the toddler unexpectedly dropped into his life isn't interested in his schedules. Still, he's pretty sure he's got things under control... ..until a sexy chef lands on his doorstep and offers a temptation he can't resist. Hours after losing her restaurant, chef Delilah Lua enters a cooking competition thousands of miles away from home. Winning would resurrect the dream that's been stolen from her. If--no, when--she wins, she'll go back with the capital to open her own place and enough fame to do it with flair. Her roommate, though, is a delicious surprise she hadn't anticipated... ..but she's not sure how to have her cake and eat it, too. Despite the undeniable sparks in the kitchen, Will's not about to give his heart to another woman who's leaving, and Delilah must decide if the delectable future she could cook up with Will is worth more than a childhood dream. Book 3: THE VERY THOUGHT OF YOU Gray Bowie broke the bro code: he fell in love with his best friend's girlfriend. For years, he hid his feelings...until one terrible night, it all came to a head. Since her life blew up in high school, Knox Holliday has spent her time honing her skills as a couture wedding dress designer. But, just weeks before her debut, a freak accident wipes out her collection. The culprit: her ex's former best friend, Gray Bowie. Gray does everything he can to get her career back on track. As they work together, they find forgiveness and start to stitch together something that looks a lot like love. But, at the very moment they realize they have a chance for something real, her ex comes back to town, bringing opportunities Gray can't provide. This time, Gray's not going to step aside, so he can only hope Knox will hold onto his heart. She's his dream, but will he be hers? Previously published as The Bad Boyfriends

Matchmaker on the Ranch Harlequin

The second volume of Georgia Voices--a three-volume anthology highlighting the achievements of Georgia writers in fiction, nonfiction, and poetry--is a fascinating collection of essays, letters, diary entries, and speeches. Including selections by African Americans, women, and Native Americans, the anthology reflects the diversity of voices and experiences throughout the history of the state. Spanning more than two and a half centuries--from Georgia's colonial beginnings to the recent decades of social struggle and technological change--the collection explores key themes in southern life as they have unfolded within the context of Georgia's growth and development: the struggle of early settlers against the wilderness; the plight of the Cherokee and the Creek; slavery and emancipation; war and defeat; reconstruction; the struggle toward and against modernity; the civil rights movement; and the contemporary South; and the global community. The writings gathered here present a dramatic story--often sad or comic, frequently moving, and on occasion ennobling. Taken together, these writings tell not one story of Georgia but many, sometimes conflicting stories. They are as exciting, heartrending, and vividly striking as any fictional account could be--from the plea by Cherokee Elias Boudinot before the Georgia legislature for his people to be allowed to remain on their native lands to Mary A. H. Gay's remarkable story of her courageous trek through enemy lines on the eve of the fall of Atlanta, from Alice Walker's struggle to understand her regional heritage to humorist Roy Blunt, Jr.'s discourse on the virtues and comic paradoxes of southern life.

The Calamity Falls Small Town Romance Box Set Tawdra Kandle Romance

Welcome to Burton, Georgia, a small town just west of Savannah. In this farm community, the women are sassy, the men are sexy and happily-ever-afters are a specialty of the house. This box set includes three full-length novels and two novellas, all set in this romance-filled little town. THE ALWAYS ONE: Maureen Evans has had a crush on Smith Harrington since they were in college together. Now, after years of maintaining a long-distance friendship, Smith's moving to Maureen's hometown to become her partner at the veterinary clinic. After all this time, she should be able to handle working with him without getting hot and bothered. Or maybe not. When friendship is no longer enough, there's always love. UNDERNEATH MY CHRISTMAS TREE: Elizabeth Hudson has one goal in mind for this holiday season: ignore it. That's wonderful, until a Christmas tree lot pops up just outside her office, run by the hot and hunky Trent Wagoner. Neither Trent nor Elizabeth planned on the instant sparks of attraction between them. But no matter how hard they fight it, something unexpected--and wonderful--may show up beneath the Christmas tree this year. THE HARD ONE: When Elizabeth Hudson and Trent Wagoner met on a Christmas tree lot in Florida, sparks flew, igniting a fire they both thought would burn for a long time. The problem with fires is that sometimes people get hurt. In this case, both Elizabeth and Trent end up burnt when a misunderstanding tears them apart. When it seems as if hope has died . . . there's always love. MY ONE AND ALWAYS: Sydney moved to the small town of Burton, Georgia to run her aunt's bakery. At least, that's her excuse. She doesn't exactly want to broadcast the fact that her own restaurant went belly-up, her boyfriend ditched her, and her life is in shambles. And the cute newspaper guy who keeps pestering her for a date with his Danish? Yeah, that's not happening. Now, though, he's got a secret weapon--the four-legged kind. Can this down-on-his-luck dog be the key to toppling the walls around her heart? THE FOREVER ONE: Two years after her life fell apart, Jenna's finally finding her balance again. Her job at the county historical society is steady and predictable, she's living on her own, and her world is peaceful, if lonely. That is, until Lincoln Turner comes to town. Linc's a widower who's just gotten his kids back and is ready to tackle a new position as co-owner of a building restoration company . . . in Burton. Jenna isn't looking for love, and Linc definitely doesn't want any attachments. And neither of them is ready for the irresistible attraction they experience when a huge project brings them together.
