Central Railway Magazine Vintage
This is a facsimile reprint of the very first

Boy Scouts Handbook, complete with the wonderful vintage advertisements that accompanied the original 1911 edition, now in full color. Over 40 million copies of this book have been distributed since its first publication nearly 100 years ago. The original Boy Scouts Handbook standardized American scouting and emphasized the virtues and qualifications for scouting, delineating what the American Boy Scouts declared was needed to be a “well-developed, well-informed boy.” The book includes information on the organization of scouting, signs and signaling, camping, scouting games, and a description of several scouting honors. Scouts past and present will be fascinated to see how scouting has changed, as well as what has stayed the same over the years.

The Handbook for Girl Guides, Or, How Girls Can Help Build the Empire Franklin Classics

21 riveting stories from the battlefield about how India’s highest military honour was won. The Brave takes you to the hearts and minds of India’s bravest soldiers, all of whom won the Param Vir Chakra, India’s greatest military honour. With access to the Army, families and comrades-in-arms of the soldiers, Rachna Bisht Rawat paints the most vivid portrait of these men and their extraordinary deeds. How hard is it to fight at 20,000 feet in sub-zero temperatures? Why did Captain Vikram Batra say ‘Yeh dil maange more’? How do wives and girlfriends of soldiers who don’t return cope? What happens when the enemy is someone that you have trained? How did the Charlie Company push back the marauding Chinese? How did a villager from Uttar Pradesh become a specialist in destroying tanks? Both gripping and inspiring, The Brave is the ultimate book on the Param Vir Chakra.

Excerpt from The Book of Woodcraft and Indian Lore For over twenty-five years I have been giving the talks and demonstrations that are gathered together in this book. Many Of them have appeared in magazines or in the birch-bark Roll that has come out annually for ten years. But this is the first time in which a comprehensive collection has been made Of the activities, customs, laws, and amusements that have been developed in my camps. Some of the related subjects I have treated at too great length for enclosure in one book. Of this class are the Life Histories Of Northern Animals, Animal Stories, Sign Language and Forestry, which appear as separate works. All are merely parts of a scheme that I have always considered my life work, namely, the development or revival of Woodcraft as a school for Manhood. By Woodcraft I mean outdoor life in its broadest sense and the plan has ever been with me since boyhood. Woodcraft is the first of all the sciences. It was Woodcraft that made man out Of brutish material, and Woodcraft in its highest form may save him from decay. As the model for outdoor life in this country I took the Indian, and have thus been obliged to defend him against the calumnies Of those who coveted his possessions. In giving these few historical extracts to show the Indian character, it must be remembered that I could give hundreds, and that practically all the travelers who saw with their own eyes are of one mind in the matter. Commissioner Robert G. Valentine, of the Indian Bureau, the first Indian Commissioner we have ever had who knew and sympathized with the Indians, writes after reading my manuscript. For hundreds of kids "The BSG" is sweet loving for Mike, he's a sitting duck. Who sings better? Was it really a giant that made Mike tear out of the stream? only sweet gentle Adele knows. Because he's the one helping Mike to survive. But at school things are different. At school there's Mrs Gizzale, three hundred pounds of kid-hating discriminator. Pull a trick on "Mrs Gizzale" and you'll be a hero for Mike in Siyabuswa Primary School. But that would take a superhuman genius. Or maybe a sweet, calm-crafty-genius?

A complete history of the English stage
By Charles dibdin The 18th century was a wealth of knowledge, exploration and rapidly growing technology and expanding record-keeping made possible by advances in the printing press. In its determination to preserve the century of revolution, Gale initiated a revolution of its own: digitization of epic proportions to preserve these invaluable works in the largest archive of its kind. Now for the first time these high-quality digital copies of original 18th century manuscripts are available in print, making them highly accessible to libraries, undergraduate students, and independent scholars. We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection. Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades, and therefore have not been accessible to the general public. The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature, and our view is that this is a significant literary work, which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades. The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works. To ensure a high quality product, each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff. Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work. We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work, and that for you it becomes an enriching experience.

Before "Aids to Scouting" and long before "Scouting for Boys,"

"Reconnaissance and Scouting" distilled all of Baden-Powell's military scouting and reconnaissance knowledge and experience into an easily-digestible series of twenty lessons designed to instruct British army officers and NCOs in the little-known arts of military scouting. With all original illustrations, this new paperback edition of Baden-Powell's "Scouting and Reconnaissance" brings this exceptionally rare book to a 21st Century audience. Those with modern military special operations or reconnaissance experience will see many concepts presented in the books which would still be workable today, more than 130 years after the first edition of this book was published. Be sure to keep an eye out for our new editions of Baden-Powell's military and scouting books, which include:

 Reconnaissance and Scouting (1884) - red leather cover
 Cavalry Instruction (1885) - red canvas cover
 Aids to Scouting - For N.-C.Os. & Men (1899) - red cover

"Boys" is the seminal work on scouting by British Army officer and founder of the worldwide scouting movement, Robert Baden-Powell. Originally written as a manual for self-instruction, "Scouting for Boys" details many important scouting skills including scoutcraft, tracking, woodcraft, camping, and first-aid. Baden-Powell's work is a rework of his earlier "Aids to Scouting", published in 1899, and borrows many ideas from Ernest Thompson Seton's "The Birch Bark Roll of the Woodcraft Indians", published in 1906. "Scouting for Boys" includes numerous tales that can be told around the campfire, as well as many of Baden-Powell's personal anecdotes, and opinions on proper moral character of boy scouts. While some of the information in this work may seem outdated and some of the moralizing many seem antiquated to modern readers, "Scouting for Boys" remains an important historical work in the scouting movement. Having sold millions of copies since its first publication, the impact Baden-Powell's "Scouting for Boys" as well as his personal advocacy for the scouting movement cannot be overstated. This edition is printed on premium acid-free paper.

The Jungle Book Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries

The beloved debut novel about an affluent Indian family forever changed by one fateful day in 1969, from the author of The Ministry of Utmost Happiness
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • MAN BOOKER PRIZE WINNER Compared favorably to the works of Faulkner and Dickens, Arundhati Roy's modern classic is equal parts powerful family saga, forbidden love story, and piercing political drama. The seven-year-old twins Estha and Rahel see their world shaken irrevocably by the arrival of their beautiful young cousin, Sophie. It is an event that will lead to an illicit liaison and tragedies accidental and intentional, exposing "big things [that] lurk unsaid" in a country drifting dangerously toward unrest. Lush, lyrical, and unnerving, The God of Small Things is an award-winning landmark that started for its author an esteemed career of fiction and political commentary that continues unabated.

Teachers are the real mentors of students who are strong pillars of the futurist nation. Students of primary and high school are as if the rolls of mud and teachers are perfect potters to shape these mud rolls. The task to enamel of gold to these students-mud rolls to change into civilized, well-educated is being done continually by teachers. Because students follow all the guidance of not only parents but also teachers with the same delicacy. That's why students also learn along with the regular curriculum - How to behave in the society and serve the nation as well as parents when they take responsibilities of their family, such guidance is offered to them by their respective teachers. We also owe to the nation where we have our food and water. With this feeling , inspired Headmaster of Z.P. school of Hataipura, Kandhar, Mr. Rajiv Tidke has been seen to take social responsibilities through his cleanliness campaigns all the time. Popular among students, Rajiv Tidke got the new stimulation of cleaning the surroundings of school when he was in the Z. P. school Kamari, Taluka Hadgaon, District Nanded. Teachers and students were always harassed because of the dirtiness spread in the surrounding area of the school for many years and students always faced illness. One day as usual, peons and students gathered in front of the school. The peon was not ready to open the lock. Rajiv Tidke saw that someone had applied human feces on the lock. After the instructions given to the peon, the lock was washed clean and the school opened. After this the prayer was recited but this incident made Rajiv Tidke restless. He saw litters of notebooks spread in the surrounding area of the school. Trained under the guidance of Scout, Rajiv Tidke lifted human feces in the school campus and threw it away out of the school. After seeing the task of the cleanliness of their teacher, students themselves lifted feces and threw out of the campus of school. During a short time, the campus was cleaned. This act remained the first cleanliness campaign of Rajiv Tidke. Absorbing this motivation in his soul, he cleaned the entire school and the campus of school with the help of the students and teachers by giving some time for this activity every day. Then with the curriculum activities during the WorkExperience periods Rajiv Tidke cleaned lanes of various areas, gutters, roads, junk areas of Kamari village with the co-operation of the sarpanch, citizens, colleagues, teachers and students. And with this real work, villagers along his students were imbibed the importance of cleanliness. In this way, at each place where he got transferred, on holidays as well as during Work Experience periods, Rajiv Tidke practically organised cleanliness campaigns to convince the importance of cleanliness, joining hands with the sarpanch, citizens, colleagues and students. Especially the campaigns at Loha, Malegaon and Malkapur are noteworthy. At present, Rajiv Tidke is the Headmaster of Z. P. school of Hataipura, Kandhar, Taluka Kandhar, the campus and the surrounding area of this school has been also cleaned with the co-operation of colleague teachers and students. The school is also digitalized recently without the government help, he raised money from the public fund and he also added his own amount to digitalize the school. The school walls are turned totally interactive to increase the interest of students in learning. Each student should easily recite to learn all formulae, words, proverbs, good thoughts, and quotes. For this achievement, the school is transferred beautifully to shape the nation's future pillars i.e. students. He has tried to reach the message towards citizens, 'Plant trees, save trees' by arranging the tree plantation program practically in the surrounding area of the school. He is also conserving and protecting these trees all the time. The entire experiences of his work, Rajiv Tidke has described in his mother tongue through his book, (Swacchhetun Samrudhikade - स्वच्छता से समृद्धि), FROM CLEANLINESS TO PROSPERITY, without any hesitation. This is the readable book which is the best guidelines to convince you the importance of cleanliness of your surrounding. Each teacher must read this book with the special purpose to transform society. After noticing the experiences of Cleanliness Campaigns of Rajiv Tidke through this book, if each teacher conducts the cleanliness campaigns for villages with the cooperation of the sarpanch, citizens, colleagues, and students, our India will definitely approach PROSPERITY through CLEANLINESS by taking inspiration from this book.

"Emperor Jahangir is probably best known in the West as the father of Shahjahan, who built the Taj Mahal. Jahangir's reign was one of great prosperity, and his passion for art and nature encouraged an artistic flowering that rivaled European art during the rule of the Medicis. Jahangir's memoirs provide not only the history of his reign, but also his reflections on art, politics, and life, including the suicide of one of his wives, and selections of poetry written by members of his harem.

R. K. Narayan (1906—2001) witnessed nearly a century of change in his native India and captured it in fiction of uncommon warmth and vibrancy. Swami and Friends introduces us to Narayan's beloved fictional town of Malgudi, where ten-year-old Swaminathan's excitement about his country's initial stirrings for independence competes with his ardor for cricket and all other things British. Written during British rule, this novel brings colonial India into intimate focus through the narrative gifts of this master of literary realism.

Rabindranath Tagore, also written Rabindranatha Thakura, (7 May 1861 - 7 August 1941), sobriquet Gurudev, was a Bengali polymath who reshaped Bengali literature and music, as well as Indian art with Contextual Modernism in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Author of Gitanjali and its "profoundly sensitive, fresh and beautiful verse", he became the first non-European to win the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1913. In translation his poetry was viewed as spiritual and mercurial; however, his "elegant prose and magical poetry" remain largely unknown outside Bengal. Tagore introduced new prose and verse forms and the use of colloquial language into Bengali literature, thereby freeing it from traditional models based on classical Sanskrit. He was highly influential in introducing the best of Indian culture to the West and vice versa, and he is generally regarded as the outstanding creative artist of the modern Indian subcontinent, being highly commemorated in India and Bangladesh, as well as in Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan.
