This Grade 3.5 arrangement requires the technical skills, range, and maturity of high school or college-level performers. The fast-paced work, in a 2/4 time signature, is scored in Concert Key of Eb Major with a modulation into F Major for the 4th and final verse. In addition to the five parts for a brass quintet (two trumpets, horn, trombone and tuba), there are trombone parts that double the first and second trumpets and a part that doubles the Horn in F, thus the work could also be performed by a trombone quintet. Also included are parts for a T.C. Baritone (doubling 3rd trombone). This allows great programming flexibility for church music directors and music teachers at any level. If you don't have an adequate number of players in a particular section, mix and match from your brass section. The purchaser of this work is free to photocopy the parts for rehearsal and performance purposes. Never worry about lost or damaged parts again. Keep this copy in your files and enjoy it for years to come. Joy to the World will be a valuable addition to your brass music library. The vibrant moving lines that accompany and support the organist's lead of the hymn will be certain to vitalize any Christmas celebration. Audiences will love the moving inner parts and the power and resounding beauty that full brass sound adds to this classic carol.
