The Devil To Pay (Mills & Boon Intrigue) (Bewitching the Dark, Book 3) One World John Nuzzolese is one of twelve children born to immigrant parents of Italian descent. A St. John's University graduate, he taught elementary education for most of his life in Ohio, New York, Australia, and Florida where he currently resides.
Nuzzolese, a former Franciscan Brother, addresses the notion of life after death by interweaving his theological background with the characters in his novel. Read how the lost treasure is found four hundred years later in the sequel, Devil's Cave, The Treasure Found, Circa 2000.

Angel Slayer Harper Collins

Truvin Stone no longer remembered his victims... Or his enemies. As he fought for survival, the only person Truvin could trust was an outsider to his world, an innocent foolish enough to nurse him back to health.... Truvin's past was one story Lucy Morgan couldn't stop chasing, even after she discovered he was a vampire. Drawn in by his dark side, Lucy was one bite away from feeling the true power of his embrace--and his eternal curse. Standing in the midst of a new war, Truvin was the key to tipping the balance between vampire and witch. Yet returning to his old, evil ways would destroy Lucy... and deliver to him a fate worse than death.

Charming the Devil Harlequin

Mike Hammer gives a lift to a beauty on the run from a sanitarium—but their joyride is cut short by two dark sedans full of professional killers, who knock the detective out cold. When he wakes up, his car has been rolled off a cliff, with his mysterious passenger still inside it. The feds take his gun away on suspicion, but Hammer's not about to let that stop him.
He's on the hunt for the men who wrecked his ride and killed a dame in cold blood—and he's going to teach them that armed or not, crossing Mike Hammer is the last thing you should ever do.

"A pioneer work in...the sexual structuring of society. This is not just another book about witchcraft." —Edmund S. Morgan, Yale University Confessing to "familiarity with the devils," Mary Johnson, a servant, was executed by Connecticut officials in 1648. A wealthy Boston widow, Ann Hibbens was hanged in 1656 for casting spells on her neighbors. The case of Ann Cole, who was "taken with very strange Fits," fueled an outbreak of witchcraft accusations in Hartford a generation before the notorious events at Salem. More than three hundred years later, the question "Why?" still haunts us. Why were these and other women likely witches—vulnerable to accusations of witchcraft and possession? Carol F. Karlsen reveals the social construction of witchcraft in seventeenth-century New England and illuminates the larger contours of gender relations in that society.
