Human-Centered Agriculture Ukiyoto Publishing

This book explores the interplay of farm mechanization, human factors and climatic and other environmental uncertainty in agriculture, using an ergonomics based approach to discuss solutions to the traditionally acknowledged vulnerability of the sector. It converges contemporary research documentation, case studies and international standards on agricultural ergonomics, engineering anthropometry, human factors, basic occupational health services, safety management, human performance and system sustainability to provide a handy reference to students and professionals working to optimize agricultural output while balancing the rational utilization of labour in agricultural practices and human well-being.

This comprehensive and self-contained textbook will help students in acquiring an understanding of fundamental concepts and applications of engineering mechanics. With basic prior knowledge, the readers are guided through important concepts of engineering mechanics such as free body diagrams, principles of the transmissibility of forces, Coulomb's law of friction, analysis of forces in members of truss and rectilinear motion in horizontal direction. Important theorems including Lami's theorem, Varignon's theorem, parallel axis theorem and perpendicular axis theorem are discussed in a step-by-step manner for better clarity. Applications of ladder friction, wedge friction, screw friction and belt friction are discussed in detail. The textbook is primarily written for undergraduate engineering students in India. Numerous theoretical questions, unsolved numerical problems and solved problems are included throughout the text to develop a clear understanding of the key principles of engineering mechanics. This text is the ideal resource for first year engineering undergraduates taking an introductory, single-semester course in engineering mechanics.

World Directory of Mathematicians Satlok Ashram This dictionary is based on published texts and copies from unpublished manuscripts in Old and Middle Javanese. The vocabulary is arranged in Latin alphabetical order with the base-words as entries. Meaning and usage of the entries are illustrated by quotations from the whole range of the relevant literature. These are arranged in such a way that changes in usage or minor semantic developments can be traced. The reader can then see for himself how the interpretation given, often based on the context, was reached, and whether he agrees with it. In the case of rare words, or where a question mark indicates that there is a doubt about the correctness of the interpretation, many or even all the places where these words occur are given. In other cases what may seem a profusion of examples is provided because of the insight they give into the life and culture of early Java. His Wife by Iannedyeyd "Aya used to live her life normally. Even living with her so-called 'family' who always hurts and humiliates her is fine, for as long as they are complete. One fateful day, when all her hopes fade, dreams crashed, unbearable pain killing her, she met Kurt Christian Anderson, the man in her private daydreams and a businessman who she only has seen in the magazines. He saved her, and to be able to get her from her abusive parents, he declared that she is his wife. To where will it lead her? Will she be able to continue being his wife when secrets about her life started to unfold?" Published by Psicom Publishing Inc

Thermal Engineering All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi Charlin Javier is just an ordinary and cheerful girl who's really good at making friends but for Nathan Perez she is a walking disaster, stupid and clumsy. Pagdating sa katalinuhan si Nathan agad ang naiisip ng mga tao, he only cares about his grade—siya ang laging nakakakuha ng perfect score sa exam, laging champion sa sports game, quiz bee at iba't ibang patimpalak na kanyang sinasalihan—sa madaling salita siya ang kabaliktaran ni Charlin. Hindi niya lubos maisip na kay Nathan mahuhulog ang kanyang loob, una palang alam na niyang wala na siyang pag-asa nguni't hindi siya sumuko. She's very passionate and determined to win the heart of the guy she loves. Charlin works really hard for her to prove that she can step forward, madami siyang nagawang bagay na hindi niya akalaing magagawa niya para lang kay Nathan, although he always shows a cold and harsh attitude to her, she can't help but to love him Makakamit nga kaya ni Charlin ang inaasam niyang pag-ibig mula sa taong minamahal niya? O huli na para kay Nathan na suklian ang pagmamahal niya dahil posibleng makukuha na ng iba ang puso ng dalaga? Ano nga ba ang magiging dulo nilang dalawa?
